

PARKER AND DAVIS ARE THE NOMINEES

Democratic Convention Almost Broke Up In a Row.

Judge Parker, After The Nomination, Forces an In- dorsement of The Gold Standard.

HENRY DAVIS, OF WEST VA., FOR VICE PRESIDENT

The Democratic ticket is as follows:
For President—Alton Brooks Parker, of New York.
For Vice President—Henry Davis, of West Virginia.

St. Louis, July 11.—Henry G. Davis, ex-United States senator from West Virginia, was nominated for vice president on the first ballot early Sunday morning. The vote was as follows: Alabama votes 22 for Davis, West Virginia, Arkansas 18 for Davis, California 20 for Davis, Colorado 7 for Turner and 3 for Williams, Connecticut 14 for Davis, Delaware 3 for Davis and 3 for Turner, Florida 10 for Davis, Georgia 26 for Davis, Idaho 6 for Turner, Illinois 54 for Williams, Indiana 30 for Williams, Iowa passed, Kansas 20 for Harris, Kentucky 26 for Davis, Louisiana 18 for Davis, Maine 9 for Davis, Maryland 16 for Davis, Massachusetts 32 for Davis, Michigan 28 for Davis, Minnesota 23 for Turner, Mississippi 20 for Williams, Missouri 26 for Davis, Montana 6 for Harris, Nebraska 16 for Davis, Nevada 6 for Turner, New Hampshire 8 for Davis, New Jersey 24 for Davis, New York 78 for Davis, North Carolina 24 for Williams, North Dakota 6 for Davis, Ohio 46 for Davis, Oregon 8 for Turner, Pennsylvania 68 for Davis, Rhode Island 8 for Williams, South Carolina 18 for Williams, South Dakota 8 for Turner, Tennessee 24 for Davis, Texas 86 for Davis, Utah 6 for Turner, Vermont 8 for Davis, Virginia 24 for Davis, Washington 10 for Turner, West Virginia 14 for Davis, Wisconsin 26 for Davis, Wyoming 6 for Davis, Alaska 6 for Turner, Arizona 6 for Davis, Indian Territory 6 for Williams, Hawaii 6 for Turner, New Mexico 6 for Turner, Oklahoma 2 for Harris, 2 for Williams and 2 for Turner, Porto Rico 2 for Davis.

The total votes cast were: For Williams 165, Turner 100, Davis 654, Harris 58.

On motion of Breck Hill of Kentucky Davis' nomination was made unanimous.

William F. Sheehan of New York introduced a resolution after the nomination of Davis for vice president providing that Chairman Jones shall call the new national committee together at New York at such time as he may designate.

At 1:32 the usual resolutions of thanks to officers of the convention, the city and the national committee were adopted. Convention has adjourned sine die.

PARKER'S TELEGRAM.
Hon. W. W. Sheehan, Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis, Mo.:
I regard the gold standard as finally and irrevocably established, and shall act accordingly if the action of the convention today shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject my views should be made known to the convention, and if it is unsatisfactory to the majority I request you to decline the nomination for me at once, that another may be nominated before adjournment.

ALTON B. PARKER.

THE ANSWER.
(The convention, after discussion, sent the following telegram in substance to the nominee):
"The platform is silent on the subject because it is not a possible issue in his campaign, and only campaign issues are mentioned. Therefore, nothing in the views expressed by you would preclude your standing on the platform.

REORGANIZATION OF COMMITTEE FAILED.

St. Louis, Mo., July 11.—Two meetings of the Democratic National Committee were held yesterday for the purpose of attempting to reorganize the committee, but it was finally decided that it would be discourteous to Judge Parker to do so without first consulting him. Some of the members insisted, and finally compromised by adopting a resolution of Senator Bailey endorsing Tom Taggart, of Indiana.

BRYAN MAY YET BOLT.

When asked after the debate on the reply to Judge Parker whether it was his intention to support the ticket, Mr. Bryan said:
"I have not yet considered that question sufficiently to reply, but I will make my position known in due time."

ALMOST A ROW.

St. Louis, Mo., July 11.—The seventh session of the Democratic National Convention, which was called to order at 8:37 o'clock Saturday afternoon, was expected to be the last, but it speedily broke up in a row, which for a time threatened to undo all the work of the three days previous, and result in a split in the party. The trouble began early in the session, when it was whispered that former Lieutenant Governor W. F. Sheehan had a telegram from Judge Parker declining to run upon the gold standard plank, was inserted in the platform.

If a thunderbolt had fallen among the delegates it could not have produced a more stunning effect. Senator Culberson, of Texas, was the first to have the nerve to act. The other leaders fell in and a hasty adjournment until 8:30 was taken.

BITTERLY DENOUNCES PARKER

Of the leaders who joined in denouncing Parker, Tillman of South Carolina, Governor Vandaman of Mississippi and Ollie James of Kentucky easily took the lead. Tillman shouted to Hill: "Why in hell did not the d-d fool talk and let us know what his ideas were before we made fools of ourselves by nominating him?"

Tillman was heard to say: "Some one ought to move to revoke the nomination."

Hill made a quiet reply and Tillman shouted: "Then our candidate goes out on a platform that he has confessed he does not believe in. We will burst this convention in pieces before we submit to one man dictating."

OLLIE JAMES FOR BRYAN.

Congressman Ollie James of Kentucky delivered an impromptu speech in the lobby of the Planters' hotel bitterly attacking Judge Alton B. Parker for repudiating the Democratic platform and clamoring for Bryan's leadership. The big 6-foot congressman declared that Bryan was stronger than ever before in his life, and rising to his full height, waving his hat above his bald head, he demanded that the banner again be placed in the hands of "old man Bryan."

A number of Kentucky delegates gathered about their congressman and loudly cheered every word that fell from his lips. "If Parker did not know the kind of platform that would probably be adopted," Mr. James continued, "he should have had sense enough to have informed himself through the public prints, and if he did not have sense enough to do that,

THE LIEBEL CASE SET FOR SATURDAY

Victim is Improving From His Injury.

Tom Jett's Picture is to Adorn the Rogue's Gallery Very Soon.

POLICE COURT NEWS NOTES

Mr. Sam Liebel, who was shot Saturday by Skipper Jones, is getting along nicely and is not seriously injured. The case against Jones, who is out on bond, was today set for Saturday by Judge Sanders.

The police have not yet learned anything about Tom Jett, the negro arrested on suspicion Saturday after he had been seen prowling about the poor farm. This morning he was warranted for disorderly conduct and his photograph was taken to be sent to other places to ascertain if he is wanted.

There were few important cases in police court today.

Enoch Harlan was fined $2 and costs for a breach of the peace. James Ross was fined $10 for sleeping in a box car, and Tom Clark $10 for a breach of the peace.

Pearl Bays, Myrtle Harrington and Lottie Jacobs were fined $5 and costs each for a mutual fight, and Mat McKinney for a breach of the peace, drew $5 and costs. George Smith, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 and costs, and Ed Hayes charged with making a false statement in hiring a buggy, was granted a continuance until Wednesday.

Colonel Ben Weille this morning found an empty bank such as are placed in stores and public places for contributions for the benefit of the Children's Home in Louisville. The bank had been opened and the money extracted and the bank then discarded. This is not the first time such a theft has been committed. It is not known where the bank came from.

Thomas Tracy, the alleged Madison, Ind., murderer, was last night taken back on a requisition to answer for his crime. Sheriff Crozier arrived yesterday morning from Frankfort with the papers, and the prisoner was turned over to him.

The following arrests have been made today: Tom Burnett, Tom Ray, Levy Trie and Thomas Stegar, colored, for gaming, and Henry Fields, colored, for drunkenness.

STRUCK BY A BALL.

Miss Mary Brogan, of near 12th and Trimble streets, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon late by being struck by a baseball. Miss Brogan was walking along the street when she passed several boys who were playing catch ball. The ball struck Miss Brogan in the face painfully, but not seriously injuring her.

FLOOD SUFFERERS.

Washington, July 11.—The war department has issued orders to General Bell at Ft. Leavenworth to supply from a thousand to thirty-five hundred rations daily to Kansas flood sufferers until further notice.

his New York delegation ought to have had sense enough to have informed him. We made that platform, and if there is any man who does not care to stand on it, I say let him get off d-quick."

Some one suggested that Judge Parker was swimming while the platform was being discussed, and, consequently, could not know its probable purport, whereupon the big Kentucky congressman yelled at the top of his voice: "D—n him, if that's the reason, he ought to go and take another bath; he's dirty yet. David Hill spent sixteen hours in preparing that platform, and for Parker to repudiate it at this late hour is simply folly, and I am in favor of putting the old banner in Bryan's hands."

KEY TO THE PORT CAPTURED BY JAPS

They Are Now Gradually Nearing the Stronghold.

Two Russian Ships Are Reported to Have Been Sunk.

AND KINCHOU IS CAPTURED

Rome, July 11.—A dispatch to the Argemzia Libera from Chifu reports that Chungtao, the key to the defense of Port Arthur, has been captured by the Japanese. The fighting is proceeding along the chain of hills between Chungtao and Port Arthur. The reports add that the Russian battleship Retsivan and another battleship were destroyed. No details are included in report.

ON THE MAIN ROAD.

Moscow, July 11.—The Lia Yang correspondent of the newspaper Novosti reports that the Japanese advance column has appeared on the main road to Mukden.

CAPTURE OF KINCHOU.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—Lieutenant General Saharoff in a dispatch to the general staff, confirms the reports of the Japanese occupation of Kinchou. He says that the Russian losses did not exceed 10 killed and wounded. The general adds that the Japanese are on the Yin Kow road.

SEVENTEEN DEAD NEAR NEW YORK

Special Train With 800 Passengers Struck.

Thirty-eight Were Injured in a Railroad Wreck Near St. Louis, Mo.

AND OTHER TELEGRAPH NEWS

New York, July 11.—A train on the Erie railroad was wrecked at noon yesterday near Midvale, N. J., by a tower operator failing to set the block signal, the fast train striking a special. Seventeen were killed and 100 injured, all living in New York, Hoboken and Jersey City. The special train struck was carrying an excursion of 800 of the Plat Duetscher association of Hoboken for an outing.

ONE NEAR ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., July 11.—The tender of a locomotive jumped a switch at Labadie, 45 miles from here last night, wrecking a Missouri Pacific train, injuring 38, three seriously, but killing none.

MR. BRYAN BETTER.

St. Louis, Mo., July 11.—Mr. W. J. Bryan is much improved today and will be able to leave for his home in Lincoln tonight.

LYNCHING IN MISSISSIPPI.

Houston, Miss., July 11.—Jessie Tucker, colored, who was charged with entering Mr. J. E. Johnson's home while he was away, and frightening Mrs. Johnson, was hanged to the M. and O. bridge here. It was an orderly lynching, and the mob was not detected.

FATHER KILLS SON.

Mt. Sterling, July 11.—Nimrod Byrd, son of Amasa Byrd, while intoxicated, threatened to burn the house and kill the family. He broke into his father's room with a corn knife and mallet. His father emptied the contents of a shotgun into his son's breast, killing him instantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Mitchell and daughters returned yesterday from attending the fair at St. Louis.

DID PADUCAH GIRL CAUSE HIM TO FALL

Young Russian in Jail at Cincinnati for Stealing.

Robbed His Own Sister to Marry His Sweetheart Living Near Paducah.

CAUGHT IN NEW YORK CITY

Somewhere in this vicinity there is doubtless a grieving girl wondering why she has heard nothing from her fiancé. At Cincinnati in jail is a young Russian who will probably not see his sweetheart for many a day; because to marry her he robbed his own sister and was caught. He must now pay the penalty.

The Cincinnati Post thus tells the story:

To raise money to buy presents and prepare for his marriage to a pretty girl living near Paducah, Ky., Charles Zaleson, a young Russian, who has been in this country about 20 years, came all the way from New York and robbed his sister, Mrs. Francis Scheinesohn, of upper Elm street. This is the claim of the prisoner, who was brought back from New York by Detective Jackson Wednesday night and who was arraigned before Squire Winkler Thursday.

Zaleson has not seen his sister for 15 years, and two months ago he came to Cincinnati on a visit and saw about $500 worth of jewelry it was easy for him to steal. He pawned the jewels on Vine street and fled. Under the alias of Charleson, he said, he had intended remaining in New York until the matter blew over, and then he was going to Paducah to claim the girl who was to be his wife. She is a Russian, too, and they lived in the old country. Zaleson would not tell who she is.

While in hiding he was captured and made a fight against returning to Cincinnati. He strenuously denied the theft at first, but after getting on the train he unfolded to Jackson the little romance as he confessed his guilt. Zaleson was arraigned before Squire Winkler Thursday.

D. G. VICKERY DEAD

WELL KNOWN CARPENTER A VICTIM OF CONSUMPTION.

Mr. D. G. Vickery died this morning of consumption at 8 o'clock, at the family residence, 403 South Nineteenth street. He was 59 years of age, and born in Tennessee. He had resided in Paducah about 14 years and was a carpenter by trade.

A wife and nine children survived him. His children are: Mesdames Mary Hager, Annie Stewart, Eva Hall, Helen Vincent, Misses Clara Vickery, Latella Vickery, Agatha Vickery, Nina Vickery and Mr. Sam Vickery, all of Paducah. He also left one sister, Mrs. Mary Vincent, of this city.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence and the burial will be at Oak Grove.

Mrs. Charles Dupriest died last night in Mechanicsburg, of dropsy. She was 22 years of age. A husband, but no children survived her. A baby, a few weeks old, died several weeks ago.

TOBACCO BUSINESS GROWING RAPIDLY

Much of the Weed is Being Moved.

Adams and Southern Express Offices to Be Consolidated.

AND OTHER BUSINESS NOTES

The increase in bank clearings in Paducah last week of over $125,000 was due largely to money paid out for tobacco. The tobacco business in Paducah is now getting quite brisk, and a great deal of the weed is being sold. In fact, the market is better than it has been known in a long time, and tobacco men have every assurance that it will continue to improve.

The Imperial company, which has bought a large quantity of the weed during the past several months, is now ready to begin prizing for shipment to England. The prizing begins this week, and will last some time. The factory was closed for several weeks the past spring on account of the new ruling in England, requiring an extra tax of six cents for stemmed tobacco.

The Mayfield market is reported good, and that at Fulton about as usual. The Fulton Commercial of Saturday said:

Fields Brothers prized their last hoghead of tobacco yesterday and closed out their contract with the Italian government. This enterprising firm have gotten the regie contract for the last two years.

Mr. Fields says the crop was of such an inferior grade that they bought only a very small quantity this year. Now that they have closed out their contract it is the intention of Fields Brothers to handle a large purchase on their own account. Their buyers are already out examining the crops and before many days the tobacco will begin to pour into Fulton.

The offices of the Southern and Adams Express Companies in Paducah will be consolidated about August 1st, and the business will be transacted in the Southern office on South Third near Broadway. Mr. Brown, the Southern agent, will be in charge, and Mr. Norton, of the Adams company, will be transferred to some other place. The Southern was formerly the biggest company in this section, but when the Illinois Central got the C. O. & S. W. railroad the express privileges were given to the American, and since then the Southern has had only the N. O. & St. L. The Adams has had the river business, but some time ago abandoned the service between Paducah and Evansville, as it didn't pay. Its business failed to justify the expense of an agent and office, and the company decided to merge the two offices.

The Scott Hardware Company may be able to resume business in its building on Broadway in three or four weeks, although the exact date is not certain. Captain J. M. White, owner of the building, arrived yesterday from Nashville, and arrangements have been made to at once repair the building. It was reported that the Scott Company would abandon their retail trade, but Mr. Frank L. Scott today denied this rumor, saying that the company, when it resumed, would be in both the wholesale and retail trade as before.

The consolidation of the Noble, Overby & Co., and the Covington Bros., wholesale grocery companies, will be effected about September first, and the principal effect it will have will be that Mr. Ed P. Noble, lately elected president of the Globe Bank, will retire, and Mr. Curt Covington will have charge of the business now done by both concerns. The new concern will use all the buildings now used by both companies.

The Foreman Filter Company has elected officers as follows: Sam Foreman, president and manager; Al

POPULAR PASTOR TO LEAVE PADUCAH

Rev. W. H. Pinkerton of First Christian Church Resigns.

Resignation to Take Effect November 1 and Is Announced As Final—No Future Plans.

OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

Rev. W. H. Pinkerton, of the First Christian church announced to his congregation yesterday that he would sever his connection with it as pastor, November 1, since that would complete the time he agreed to stay, when he offered his resignation some time ago.

Mr. Pinkerton has been pastor of the First Christian church of this city for eleven years, or it will be eleven years by November 1. He is one of the most popular ministers of Paducah, both with his own congregation and others, and his leaving will be a matter of universal regret.

Mr. Pinkerton gives as a reason for his determination to leave Paducah, that he feels that he is capable of doing better work in another field. He said to the Sun this morning that his decision was final, and the congregation will be left no choice but to accept the resignation. He has not yet made any definite plans for the future.

Rev. D. C. Wright, who has been called to the pastorate of Grace Episcopal church, preached morning and evening at this church yesterday. A meeting of the church vestry will be held this evening, and Mr. Wright will announce at this time whether or not he will accept the call to this church.

Rev. O. J. Cole, will begin a protracted meeting at Olivet Baptist church in this county, Sunday, July 24. He will be assisted by Rev. G. M. McNeilly, of Russellville.

Rev. T. J. Newell left this afternoon for Wingo, to attend the meeting of the conference of the Paducah district of the M. E. Church South, and will be absent from the city three days.

There were three additions to the First Baptist church yesterday.

No business of importance was transacted at the weekly meeting of the Ministerial association at the First Baptist church this morning.

The conference of the Paducah district of the M. E. church, South, will convene this evening at Wingo. A number of Paducah delegates will be in attendance.

Colonel J. E. Potter and Mr. James Hart went to McKendree Methodist church in the county yesterday to attend a singing. A large crowd was in attendance. Dinner was served on the grounds.

SECRETARY ARRIVES

U. S. DUNCAN, OF CHICAGO, NOW IN CHARGE OF PADUCAH Y. M. C. A.

Mr. U. S. Duncan, the new secretary of the Y. M. C. A., arrived Saturday evening from Chicago and is now in charge of the local association.

Mr. O. B. Van Horn, religious and educational secretary of the Kentucky Y. M. C. A., will arrive this evening from Louisville, to assist Mr. Duncan in assuming his new duties.

POLICE BOARD TO MEET.

The board of trade and police commissioners will meet tonight in regular session, but it is likely nothing will be done on account of the illness of Commissioner Mann Clark, who is unable to attend.

Foreman, secretary and treasurer. The factory for making the filters will be in Paducah.

It is likely that the deal for the new Richmond hotel lease will be settled by Wednesday, and Colonel Bud Dale may secure a part ownership.

RESULTS SATURDAY.

Clarksville 11, Paducah 2.
Cairo 7, Vincennes 2.
Hopkinsville 5, Henderson 4.

CAIRO LOST.

Vincennes, Ind., July 11.—Vincennes won yesterday's game after eleven innings of as pretty playing as was ever seen here by a score of 2 to 1. Whitley and Lemon were batteries for Vincennes, and Bittroff and Rutledge for Cairo. Had Cairo won she would have gone to first place.

HENDERSON DEFEATED.

Henderson, Ky., July 11.—The visitors won yesterday's game.
Henderson, 1-5-4; Hopkinsville, 7-10-5. Bryan and Downing; Terrell and Collins.

SATURDAY'S GAMES.

Clarksville, Tenn.—Clarksville, 11-12-3, Todd and Pettit; Paducah, 2-4-5, Brady and Lash.

Vincennes, Ind.—Cairo, 7-8-1, Wilder and Rutledge; Vincennes, 2-4-1, Crangle and Doutell.

Henderson, Ky.—Henderson, 4-10-0, McNutt and Downing; Hopkinsville, 5-11-5, Morris and Coleman.

WHY SETLEY WAS RELEASED.

Some of the papers over the circuit labor at the impression that Setley was released for the Henderson affair in which Land of Paducah made an attack on him. This is far from the real facts in the case. He was released for giving orders for borrowed cash and merchandise on the league, contrary to positive orders that were given him. The last time he did this was the occasion of a draft for $15 given to a Henderson gentleman and by means of a hard luck story succeeded in getting him to endorse it, thus securing the money. He was wired that a repetition of the offense would mean his instant dismissal. Even after this warning he secured merchandise from a Vincennes merchant giving an order on the league for the amount. That settled it—Setley was canned immediately. There were other charges, but no consideration was given them as they were not substantiated. Let Setley rest now—he is out—don't rub it in.—Cairo Bulletin.

BASEBALL NOTES.

"Dutch" Waggoner has jumped Cairo, according to reports, and will play independent ball with Polpar.

Progressiveness....

Our persistent aim is to better our business. That which formerly was regarded as BEST is not now so viewed by us. Every thing we carry in stock for the sick is high grade and selected with great care. But we carry good things for the well at our fine Soda Fountain. Our CREAM said by many to be the finest they ever ate. Served with Crushed Strawberries, Pine-Apple, Peaches and Nuts. And all other Cooling and Refreshing Drinks served with Pure Fresh Fruit Syrups.

HAYE'S

7th and Broadway.

Bluff, Mo. More money is said to have been the inducement.

Paducah has an off day Tuesday and will play Clarksville at Clarksville, instead of playing yesterday, Sunday ball not being played in Tennessee.

Secretary Farrell of the National Association, has wired for additional evidence in the Long case, and Secretary Farnbaker forwarded it at once. A decision is expected by Wednesday.

Clarksville comes to Paducah Wednesday for three games.

The uncertainty of baseball is demonstrated by Saturday's game at Henderson. Henderson made 10 hits and no errors, and Hopkinsville came along with 11 hits and five errors and won the game. It's all in bunching hits.

The fans talk about missing "Gilligan's head," but the absence of Gilligan's head doesn't account for 4 hits and 5 errors in a game.

Hopkinsville has been forced to release three players, Welsh, Hoepfel and Otham because K. I. T. rules permit the carrying of only 11 men.

Had Cairo won yesterday the Egyptians would have gone to first place, having 655 points to Paducah's 554.

There is a rumor going around that there is a deal on with Cairo to trade Bohannon for Richards.—Cairo Bulletin.

Clarksville has sold Big Jeffries to Grand Rapids of the Central league.

Cairo has her eye on a pitcher that will if landed greatly strengthen the staff of slab artists and insure for a certainty that the pennant will land here again.—Cairo Bulletin. Why don't President Jackson get after some good men Cairo is after the pennant and will land it unless Paducah strengthens.

It is said that there is a deal on between Vincennes and Henderson to trade Bohannon, Werneck and Copeland for Schmeltz.

Pitcher Waggoner, one of the Egyptian's best slab artists, has been released for base ingratitude. Cairo will have discipline if all of its star players have to go. Mr. Jackson might take a lesson.

"Happy Hooligan" Crangle, one of the Vincennes twirlers, has been released to go with the Birmingham, Ala., in Southern League. It is said that he played indifferent ball for his release and got it.

AMATEUR GAMES.

The I. C. Independents went to Metropolis yesterday and badly defeated the Metropolis team by a score of 13 to 1. Akers and Averitt were the battery for Paducah.

The Eden Hill Stars and the White Diamonds played a match game yesterday afternoon at the Starr farm resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 4 to 2. Later the Starrs played the Sterlings and were defeated by a score of 6 to 4.

The Paducah L. A. L. team defeated the Dawson Springs team yesterday afternoon at Wallace park by a score of 12 to 3. The batteries were Duiguid and Hays for Paducah; Moore, Chambers and Goodie for Dawson. Duiguid struck out 11 men and Chambers 4. Paducah got 14 hits and Dawson only 5. Duiguid's pitching and Decker's throwing were features of the game.

Chief Lloyd umpired and did good work, kicking being conspicuously absent. Wallace, shortstop for Dawson, who is said to be fast, did not show up very well and is clearly too slow for the Kitty league.

The Illinois Central Machinists and the Sons of Rest played a match game Saturday afternoon and the former were victorious by a score of 23 to 7.

LAND GOES HOME

HIS INDEFINITE SUSPENSION ORDERED ENFORCED.

Grover Land, Paducah's catcher, returned from Clarksville yesterday after having received notice that his suspension from actual playing in the Kitty league was indefinite and he must not play any more until reinstated. Land came here to confer with President Jackson and last night went to Frankfort, his home, to remain until reinstated.

President Jackson thinks that he will have Land in the game again within the next few days.

Miss Bertha Dolbeer, who inherited over $5,000,000 at the death of her father, S. F. Dolbeer, of San Francisco, jumped from a ninth floor window in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, New York, and was killed.

William O. Vaughan, charged with the murder of R. Lee Suter, was held over at Louisville, the bond of $5,000 being renewed. Nine new witnesses were examined but nothing materially new was brought out.

LIVELY TIMES

FOR MR. H. A. ROSE AND HIS AUTOMOBILE.

M. H. A. Rose, the well known lumber dealer, experienced strenuous times with his new automobile yesterday afternoon on Broadway.

About two o'clock Mr. Rose went to the Foreman Machine Company to get his machine geared up and when he went to ride off found something the matter with the gearing. Mr. Sam Foreman got in and turned on the power and immediately the big machine shot across the street and ran into the front doors of the New City Steam Laundry.

Both doors burst open and the machine shot half way across the office. Mr. Foreman finally stopped it. An examination showed a nut gone from the cylinder band.

At Fifth and Broadway a street car approached and thinking the motorman was not going to stop, Mr. Rose slowed up to let him pass.

Mr. Rose failed to shut off the power entirely and the car stopped. Mr. Rose struck the rear end of the car and the lamps were torn from the auto and a few dents made in the front of the machine but no serious damage was done.

HEAD STRUCK

BAD INJURY TO A COLORED BRAKEMAN.

W. H. Gilbert, a colored brakeman employed by the Illinois Central, of Fulton, Ky., is in the local hospital suffering from a wound in the back of the head sustained Friday night while riding in an engine cab out of Fulton.

The negro had his head out of the cab and struck the coal chute, it is said. A deep gash was inflicted in the back of the head and Gilbert fell to the floor of the cab unconscious. He was brought to Paducah in this state and did not recover until this morning. He can not tell how the accident happened as he had his back turned to the obstruction which caused the injury. He suffers from concussion but will recover.

A DELIGHTFUL PLACE TO SPEND THE SUMMER.

In the highlands and mountains of Tennessee and Georgia, along the line of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway, may be found many health and pleasure resorts, such as Monteagle, Sewanee, Look-out Mountain, Bereaheba Springs, Bon Aqua Springs, East Brook Springs, Estill Springs, Nicholson Springs and many others. The bracing climate, splendid mineral waters, romantic and varied scenery combine to make these resorts unusually attractive to those in search of rest and health.

A beautifully illustrated folder has been issued by the N. C. and St. L. railway and will be sent to any one free of charge.

(Mention this paper.)

TOOK ONE GAME.

Ben Boyd's colored team defeated Chattanooga Saturday afternoon by a score of 3 to 2. The Chattanooga team defeated the Paducah team the first two games and the drabbing Chattanooga got Saturday was their first defeat of the season. It is likely that other games will be arranged, as the Paducah club is eager for revenge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smith and family left for Louisville today where they will reside. Their residence on Broadway will be occupied by Major and Mrs. J. H. Ashcraft.

Meeting to be Held to Arrange for Big Shoot.

Match Shoot Between Locals Thursday—Illinois Game Law.

It is probable that a meeting of the Paducah Gun Club will be held tomorrow night to begin preparations for the state championship tournament to be held here by the Trap Shooters Association in September.

This will be the biggest state event of the year, and a large number of people are expected to attend. There will be no money shot for except that in the purses, every man shooting contributing $10 to the purse.

It is likely that a match shoot between Messrs. W. A. Davis and Ambrose Mercer and Mr. W. B. Kennedy and Dr. Hansbro will take place at the Gun Club grounds Thursday afternoon to settle the championship.

Prof. John Dean, who is an enthusiastic hunter, has received a letter from the game commissioner of the state of Illinois stating that the game law has not been declared unconstitutional.

It had been reported in the Illinois papers that the supreme court of Illinois knocked out the law requiring a license from hunters, and Prof. Dean wrote to inquire. Whether or not that is what the Illinois officials has reference to is not known, as the game law may be constitutional and the license law clause in the game law requiring a license to hunt, be unconstitutional. Local hunters are interested in the question, as many of them would hunt on the other side of the river if they did not have to pay a license.

MANY VISITORS

ABOUT 1000 PEOPLE CAME TO PADUCAH FROM ILLINOIS.

The Illinois Central yesterday ran an excursion to Paducah from Carbondale, Ill., and way stations. There were fully 1000 people in the crowd, and they were brought to Paducah from Brookport on the Steamer Dick Fowler.

The crowd was so large that the boat had to make two trips, the first delegation being handled at noon, and the other about an hour later. The visitors spent the afternoon walking about and riding in the cars, and at the park, returning at 5:15. The crowd was orderly and there was no trouble of any description.

UNSUCCESSFUL THIS TIME.

The negro purse snatcher who for several weeks has attacked ladies on the North Side, made another attempt early Saturday evening on North Fifth street between Madison and Monroe, seizing Mrs. Will Utterback's purse as she and her little daughter were returning home from a shopping tour. Mrs. Utterback held onto the purse and the negro released it and ran. Several persons in the vicinity were attracted by the cries for help and went to the rescue, but the negro had escaped.

BASEBALL PLAYERS AND FOOT RACERS!

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle.

GOOD BULLETIN SERVICE.

Both the Postal and the Western Union companies bulletined the news of the Democratic national convention as they did that of the Republican, and did it in a prompt and comprehensive manner. The bulletins they furnished to their patrons free of charge and no one had to wait long for quick and accurate news of what was going on at either convention.

CHEERFULLY RECOMMENDED FOR RHEUMATISM.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes, Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

SKETCH OF A. B. PARKER.

Alton Brooks Parker was born in Cortland, N. Y., May 14, 1852. From the public schools of his native town he passed to the Cortland academy and graduated from the Cortland normal school. Afterwards he entered the Albany law school, from which he graduated and was admitted to the bar in 1872. He commenced the practice of law in Kingston, and in 1877 became the surrogate of Ulster county, serving in that office until his election to the supreme court of New York in 1885. He was appointed a member of the court of appeals of New York in 1889, and chief justice of that court in 1898.

SKETCH OF H. G. DAVIS.

Henry Gassaway Davis, of West Virginia, nominated for vice president, completed in 1883 his second full term in the United States senate. He was born in Howard county, Md., on November 16, 1823. After getting a village school education he went to work on a farm and stuck to that until he was 20 years old. Then he became a brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. He was promoted to be a conductor and then a division agent, remaining in the railroad business as an employe fourteen years all together. In 1858 he secured an interest in a coal mine and in the Piedmont national bank, of which he is now president and which is now called the Davis national bank.

He was also until recently president of the West Virginia, Central and Pittsburgh railroad, which he projected, and of the Piedmont and Cumberland railroad. His first entrance into politics was in 1865, when he was elected to the Virginia house of delegates. He was a delegate from West Virginia to the Democratic National Conventions of 1868 and 1872, the first in New York city and the other in Baltimore. In 1868 he was elected to the state senate of West Virginia and the was re-elected in 1870. In the same year he was elected United States senator from West Virginia to succeed W. T. Wiley, Republican. He was re-elected in 1876 and declined a third term.

He was one of the delegates to the Pan-American congress and a member of the United States intercontinental railroad company. In 1868 Mr. Davis married Miss Kate A. Bantz, daughter of Judge Gideon Bantz, of Frederick, Md.

MUCH WORK BEGINS AT THE I. C. SHOPS

Twenty Big Machines to Arrive and be Installed.

The Amount Spent Was $22,574—
Tin Shop to Be Built.

OTHER SHOP IMPROVEMENTS

This morning the first of the twenty big machines recently assigned to the Paducah machine shops, arrived and within the next few weeks other machines will follow and when all are installed, the Paducah shops will be able to put out work equal to Burnside in Chicago. There are machines of all classes and sizes and the total money appropriated for these machines is $22,574.

It was announced last winter that the local shops would be enlarged and several new machines put in, but the number sent exceeded the expectations of local officials. This will mean the employment of more machinists, when the busy season comes on, but it is not expected all the machines will be in service before winter sets in.

Work on the new electrical transfer table in the local I. C. shop yards, will begin today and within the next month will be completed.

As previously stated the table will be shortened and will be made to bear the engine only where at present the table will accommodate both engine and tender. By cutting off several feet at the south end, it will give room enough for a tank repairing shed which will subsequently be built.

It was stated Saturday that the tin shop would be built and that work on it would begin this week. The material will be gotten out immediately and the shop built as soon as possible. The present quarters of the tin workers are inadequate and badly located.

EXCELLENT MUSIC

PADUCAHANS ENJOY FREE CONCERTS—BOB ROBINSON COMING BACK.

Dean's Concert Band gave a delightful concert Saturday night at Second and Broadway and the attendance was the largest of the season.

Mr. H. Miller Cunningham and Mr. Bob Robinson were in the band and added much to the volume of the music. Mr. Robinson will leave for Sparta, Ill., his home, today but will probably return and locate here. He will make a valuable addition to the band.

Mr. Cunningham has a new march he recently composed and which was arranged by Herbert Clark, America's premier cornetist. The march will probably be played next Saturday night.

Dean's Concert Band gave a concert at Wallace Park Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. The program was long and besides several heavy overtures and selections from Operas, many popular songs were played. The Dean concerts are a feature of afternoon entertainments at Wallace park every Sunday.

Mayor Charles F. Grainger announced in St. Louis that upon his return he would name James P. Edwards, a member of the board of public safety to succeed the late R. Lee Suter.

CONTRACT NOT LET

BUT THE LIBRARY BOARD DECIDES TO GIVE IT TO WANAMAKER.

The contract for furnishing books for the public library was not let Saturday, but will probably be awarded to John Wanamaker & Co., of Philadelphia, after a few changes are made in the list.

The library board held a meeting Saturday night and had four bills for the books, two from Chicago houses, one from a New York house, and one from Wanamaker. The latter's bid was considered the best, considering quality, and after the company is written relative to a few changes in the list, if these are satisfactory the contract will be signed up. The price to be paid for the 1500 books is about $1900.

The bids for the concrete was about the building were opened but the contract was not let. The board will hold another meeting Thursday night to set the question.

About 500 books from the government were received Saturday, and the books to be purchased under the contract now under consideration will be here in about three weeks. The cataloguing will require sometime, and it is hardly likely that the library will be opened before September 1st, if then.

KNIFE BLADE

CAUSES DEATH OF A MAN NEAR CREAL SPRINGS, ILL.

Louis Smith, of near Creal Springs, Ill., was cut in the head in a fight with a man named Bennett four years ago. The knife broke off but Smith didn't know it, and he soon began to improve and finally recovered.

Recently his head began to pain him about the scar, and became so bad that an examination was made and the piece of knife blade was found and extracted. An abscess had formed, however, and Saturday, Smith died.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boecher's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles 25c; large size 75c. At DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Acting Governor Thorne has granted a pardon to Johnson Hatfield, one of the survivors of the famous Hatfield-McCoy feud, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary. The reasons given for the pardon are that Hatfield is in failing health and that he promises to leave the state.

PEACHES WANTED

THE CANNING FACTORY IS NOW MAKING CONTRACTS FOR PEACHES.

The Paducah canning factory will be in the market this season for a large quantity of peaches and will probably be able to purchase a large part of the peach crop of this section. The company has already begun to make contracts with the farmers for their peaches and all farmers who desire to sell their crops should make arrangements with the canning company as soon as possible.

The factory will handle both free-stone and cling peaches and will begin to receive them as soon as enough are brought in to keep the factory busy.

BILLY BRYAN BUNCOED.

David Bennett Hill was not satisfied with defeating William Jennings Bryan in everything in the recent Democratic convention, but had to rub it in. What Mr. Bryan will do about it remains to be seen. The way Colonel Bryan was "worked" shows that David Bennett has lost none of his old time adroitness. The Democratic leaders knew of the discord and differences that existed, and knew that whatever chance the Democrats had in the coming election, an open fight in the convention would not enhance it. They knew that Colonel Bryan was a menace to an harmonious convention, and would not hesitate to precipitate the warmest kind of a fight on the floor. They knew that the ammunition was there all right, and all needed was somebody to touch it off. So they decided Mr. Bryan must be kept from applying the match.

In the committee meeting Mr. Bryan was allowed to "force" the financial plank from the platform. His friends called it a victory, and he was doubtless somewhat puffed up over it. But Hill and the other gold bugs were laughing in their sleeve. They kept out the plank to please and placate Bryan, and thus staved off what would have been an embarrassing if not disastrous fight on the floor of the convention. Thus was a semblance of harmony maintained. The platform committee made an unanimous report. Bryan had made them expunge the money plank and they had induced him to cut out his income idiosyncrasy, and while the platform did not indorse free silver neither did it indorse sound money. But the convention did. Then came the opportunity of the sly sage of Esopus, N. Y. Judge Parker, The Silent, at the signal from Hill, opened his mouth and spoke. He had been nominated and he wanted it understood by the convention that he was unequivocally and irrevocably for sound money—for a gold standard—the thing the Republican party fought for and won.

He said he wanted that fully understood before the convention adjourned, so if it didn't suit they could nominate somebody else. Mr. Hill heard and doubtless chuckled softly to himself as he pictured the consternation of the Boy Orator of the Platte when he found out how badly he had been buncoed. The convention had refused to act on the money question, so the nominee of the convention compelled it to. Mr. Hill smiled again. He had the Bryan forces up a tree. The convention wouldn't indorse what Mr. Bryan and his crowd has stood for eight years, and yet it didn't dare defy them. The convention couldn't rescind its action nominating Judge Parker without becoming the laughing stock of the world, for it would mean a return to Bryanism as surely as the other. Judge Parker, the silent man, had spoken at the right time to help his friend Hill put Colonel Bryan down and out! Mr. Bryan was up a tree, the convention was up a tree. What did it do? It simply accepted the terms of surrender imposed by Judge Parker. It indorsed what Judge Parker said about sound money, which is too plain to be misunderstood even by a Democrat, and in so doing indorsed the gold standard and virtually made it a part of the platform. In so doing it also repudiated Mr. Bryan. It indorsed and made a part of the Democratic platform the principle of sound money for which the Republican party has always stood and always will stand, and which the Democratic party bitterly fought during the two preceding national campaigns.

So after all, what did Colonel Bryan get out of this convention? A few "ovations," which are cheap. He was defeated in his effort to have the Harrison faction from Illinois seated, and he was defeated in his effort to get an income tax plank in the platform. He thought he had in return prevented the indorsement of sound money, and found at the last minute, after the Hill-Belmont-Cleveland crowd had the convention in a position where it would be impossible to "back back" without stultifying the Democratic party, that the convention was destined to indorse sound money, whether it wanted to or not,—and it did.

Mr. Bryan was beautifully buncoed. They made a monkey out of him, and the question is, What is he going to do about it? He says he must have time to think.

"It is mainly in a man to express his opinion before the convention adjourns, but it would have been more manly had he expressed his opinion before the convention convened." This is what Bryan said Saturday night when the Hill faction played their trump card, catching Mr. Bryan ill and hardly able to be out. Judge Parker waited to express his sentiments on the money question until after the Democrats had nominated him. He hadn't the courage and manhood to do it before hand. He waited until the convention had nominated him and was nearly ready to adjourn, and then spoke. It left the already sorely tried Democracy, which had been striving for a week to keep down discord and strife and had done it at considerable sacrifice, between the devil and the deep blue sea. The party must surrender, or then and there fight out the battle it had so sedulously tried to avoid, and it accepted the terms of the Hill-Belmont-Wall street crowd. How does the Democratic party like the way it was inveigled into the net of these arch-tricksters from New York?

Acting Governor Thorne made quite a record during the past week. He pardoned a few people, one on the strength of the "unwritten law," which was thus recognized by the governor of the state for the first time, and a feudist who agreed to leave the state. He also told a funny story or two and by proclamation ordered the flag at Frankfort at half mast for a couple of days in honor of a departed friend.

One of the late Democratic delegates at St. Louis was put out of the convention and as he went he yelled: "That's what we get for nominating a clam shell for the presidency, and after we get it we have to take a can opener to find out what's in it." It will take a search warrant to find the "clam shell" after the November election.

Here is the opinion of the Louisville Post, Democratic, of the Democratic platform: "The rest of the platform is utterly meaningless. The party itself is disintegrating. It seems to be a mere political derelict, adrift without a rudder, compass or pilot."

Mr. Bryan said in one of his speeches at the convention: "A man's duty to his country is greater than his duty to his party" but he didn't say that when the Palmer and Buckner men's duty to their country caused them to desert the Democratic party a few years ago.

The Democrats have been claiming that one man dominated the Republican national convention. How many dominated the Democratic? You can look long and intently into the proceedings and see nothing but the shadow of David B. Hill.

The gold bug band wagon was big enough for the Kentucky delegation. They all had to pile into it, Blackburn, Woodson and all—even big Ollie Jeems.

Now that Judge Parker has recovered the power of speech, the country would like to know why the Standard Oil company and Wall street are so anxious for his election.

Probably Judge Parker's long silence was all in the Cleveland-Hill conspiracy to give Bryan his finishing touches.

COUNTY COURT

The Report Changing Voting Precincts Adopted.

Little Business at Today's Session—
Important Case Tomorrow.

Judge R. T. Lightfoot this morning held a brief session of county court and transacted but little business.

The principal thing done was the filing of the report changing the boundaries of the voting precincts in McCracken county. The work of redistricting the county was left to a committee several weeks ago and the report has been in the hands of Attorney D. A. Cross for some time. The report, as previously published, was accepted in its entirety, no changes being made.

The suit of Frank Lucas, auditor's agent, against the Owens' Ferry Co., is set for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. This is a suit brought to compel payment of a franchise tax, and contrary to reports will not settle the question as to whether James Campbell, Jr., or Mr. Lucas is the legal auditor's agent, as the Owens suit was filed when Mr. Lucas' position was unquestioned.

The liquor license of Doerflinger on North Fourth has been transferred to Bud Quarles and Kenny Murray.

Gip Husbands, special commissioner, deals to J. F. Dowdy for $380, property in the county.

CHIEF ENGINEER
WALLACE WAS HERE

Is Making a Tour of Inspection of the Road.

Superintendent of Telegraph Groce
Was Also Here Looking Over the System Today.

OTHER RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS

Mr. H. U. Wallace, chief engineer, and Mr. H. McCourt, assistant general manager of southern lines of the Illinois Central, passed through the city yesterday at noon en route to Louisville from the south where Mr. Wallace has been on a tour of inspection.

Mr. Wallace looked over the work at Tennessee river where excavations for the new bridge are being made and will make a more minute inspection on his return if he comes back this way. He is also going to look over the work on the block system which is being installed between Paducah and Central City. It was stated by Roadmaster Thompson that all signal towers are about complete and today the work of putting in the wires began.

Mr. G. H. Groce, superintendent of telegraph of the I. C., passed through the city this morning at 8 o'clock en route to Louisville on business.

Mr. Groce traveled in his private car No. 5 and was accompanied by other telegraph officials who will look over the work on the block system of the Paducah district. They will also look after the work of putting in the heavier wire on the main line telegraph and telephone system, which has in a measure proven a failure between Chicago and New Orleans.

Mr. J. E. McIlwaine, the popular I. C. dispatcher, returned Saturday from Abbotsville, S. C., where he had been attending the bedside of his father who is now much better.

The many friends of Mr. John Lane, the popular railroad contractor, will be pleased to learn that he has again become an employee of the I. C., having accepted a position today to superintend the installation of new steel tracks over Iron Ore Hill, a few miles north of Paducah on the Louisville division of the I. C. Mr. Lane was formerly supervisor of local terminals and was foreman of the gangs which built the Cairo extension of the road. After the Cairo extension was built Mr. Lane went to the Gulf and Ship Island road and remained south a year. Since his residence here Mr. Lane has done general contracting. He is getting ready his cars and men and will begin work on the job about Wednesday. It will require two months to complete the job. While Mr. Lane will remain in the employ of the I. C., he will not give up his contracting. Mr. Lane and Mr. Jeff J. Read have practically been awarded the contract by the promoters of the Cairo and Paducah electric road if built.

JIM FREEMAN IS BACK HOME AGAIN

Thinks the Kitty is as Fast as the Southern League.

He Could Have Gone With Atlanta—
Star Twirler Made a Good Showing.

PITCHES HERE WEDNESDAY

Jim Freeman, the star twirler of the Kitty league, is back. He arrived last night.

For several days this ball player, who has the "raised" ball, troubled local fans because it was rumored he had been released by Nashville and failed to show up there. It was believed that the pet of the fans had gone off somewhere to play independent ball or was pitching in some other league under a fictitious name. His return has been the principal topic of conversation on the street corners and in stores today by lovers of the national sport. Freeman comes back at a time when he is needed. The Indians are on the toboggan and he should be instrumental in checking the slide.

Feeling good over his showing made with Nashville, Freeman smilingly said to a Sun reporter this morning that while he could have remained in the Southern league he was glad to get back to Paducah, for the Kitty league is just about as fast as the Southern. When Atlanta, which team is second in the race for the Southern flag, learned that Freeman was to be released by Fisher, Manager Powell, of Atlanta, offered Freeman all kinds of inducements to come with him in case he did not stay with Paducah. Freeman was not released because he did not make good. In fact no pitcher has been tried out this season by a Southern league team who made a better impression than Jim Freeman. In his first game against Atlanta, then the leaders, he pitched a five hit game against Bridges, a youngster from the Alabama-Tennessee league. Bridges won by letting Nashville down with four hits, and at the end the score stood five to four in favor of Atlanta. Since then Bridges and Freeman were both knocked out of the box. Now Bridges is back with his old team and Freeman is wearing the war paint once more. In discussing the matter Freeman said:

"Both of Nashville's catchers were crippled and I had to pitch to Bennett, a second baseman. Bennett did not claim to be a catcher, and he would leap after my underhand ball like a frog going into the water. Nearly every time I struck out a man Bennett dropped the ball. In the second game he was principally responsible for the three runs made in the first inning, but even at that some of the best pitchers in the Southern league have fared worse than I did in one inning.

"Fisher has several twirlers 'farmed out' to the Cotton States league and the South Atlantic league. In the past few days two or three are on a par. The Southern league players regard the Kitty as fast company and they watch the papers closely for results."

Freeman will remain in Paducah until the team returns from its present tour, which will be Wednesday. He will twirl the first game, which will be against Clarksville.

MRS. F. E. LACK'S FATHER DIES
Colonel V. B. Sevier, aged 67, father of Mr. James Sevier and Mrs. F. E. Lack, of Paducah, died at his home in Jackson, Tenn., from a complication of diseases after a several weeks' illness. His children were called to his bedside several days before the end came. He was one of the best known residents of Jackson and had many friends throughout the south. Colonel Sevier was transfer clerk in the railway mail service at Jackson, and was one of the veterans of the service, having worn its uniform for over a quarter of a century.

Postman Charles Holliday has gone to Ballard county to spend his vacation.

MANY NEW PUPILS FOR THE SCHOOLS

Supt. Leib Estimates Increase at 350 More.

New Schools Have Become Very Much of a Necessity in Paducah Now.

COMMITTEE MEETS WEDNESDAY

Superintendent C. M. Leib, of the Paducah public schools, has completed his estimates of the increase in attendance to the schools this coming term by reason of the enforcement of the compulsory attendance school law and thinks that between 350 and 400 more pupils will be enrolled.

This will necessitate more room in the schools and even if new schools are not built this year, it will become absolutely necessary next year. Superintendent Leib did not go away this summer as he expected on account of work he has to do and is busily engaged at his office from 7:30 in the morning until late in the afternoon getting reports, data, etc., completed to enable him to improve the conditions of the schools next year.

The committee appointed to negotiate for lots in Mechanicsburg and Rowlandtown have not definitely decided on locations except in Rowlandtown where a lot at 12th and Flournoy has been picked out. This is in line with the proposed extension of the Paducah City railway and will be centrally located in that district.

The committee will meet probably about Thursday and draft a report to be presented at the next board meeting.

By the removal of the Seventh and Eighth grades from all buildings except the Eighth grade from the Franklin, more room will be made in two schools but this will not serve to remedy the shortage in room and it is probable, thinks Superintendent Leib, that a store room will this year be rented in Rowlandtown to accommodate pupils in that section, and if the lot at 12th and Flournoy streets is bought it will be built next year.

Miss Virginia Newell left this afternoon for a visit to Brownsville, Tenn.

TUNING A PHYSICIAN

HE GOT OUT, AND THEN IN TUNE.

If coffee has you where your nerves demand it each morning you have a wreck ahead sure.

Think back for a year and notice how the sick spells grow on you instead of getting less.

You are running into nervous prostration or some fixed disease absolutely certain, and when it suddenly takes full possession you will find nothing, absolutely nothing, in drugs that will heal you. Nature demands penalty for the daily hurt to the nerve centers by coffee, and you must pay the full price.

A physician of Cornwall, Ont., says of himself: "For years coffee was to me what rum is to the toper but I kept getting worse and worse in health."

"I suffered from continuous nervous twitching, insomnia, restless, miserable nights, nerves all gone. Craving for coffee was intense but it put me lower and lower in health. Something must be done, so I tried leaving off the coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. The first trial wife and I were disgusted for we were careless in brewing it, but we went carefully into the subject of preparing Postum and found we had only allowed it to brew about five minutes, and that won't make good Postum. So next time it was boiled full 15 minutes after boiling began, then served with good cream and it was toothsome and delicious. That marked the beginning of my return to health. Now I sleep well, the old twitching has disappeared, and in short I am well again. My good wife has also been much benefited by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. We have abandoned the old coffee for all time." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason why so many intelligent people and physicians drink Postum in place of ordinary coffee. Look in each package for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Enos Collins Fatally Shot at Barbecue.

Wanted to Fire His Pistol When the Manager Emptied Shotgun
Into Him.

Enos Collins, an alleged "bad man" of Marshall county, was shot and fatally injured Saturday afternoon by Philip Jones at a barbecue near Olive, Marshall county.

It seems Jones was manager of the barbecue, and Collins was there feeling in a pugnacious mood. He wanted to shoot a pistol into the crowd for fun, it is said, and Jones objected.

A fight ensued in which Collins attempted to use his pistol and Jones fired the contents of a shot gun into Collins' stomach.

The injured man died late yesterday afternoon. He is the man who killed Will Hampton, at Hamlet, five years ago.

Jones is under arrest.

The Blazed Trail

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE

Copyright, 1903, by Stewart Edward White

In the men's camp the crew lounged, smoked, danced or played cards. In those days no one thought of forbidding gambling. One evening Thorpe who had been too busy to remember Phil's violin, strolled over and looked through the window. A dance was in progress. The men were waiting, whirling solemnly round and round, gripping firmly each other's loose sleeves just above the elbow. At every third step of the wait they stamped one foot.

Perched on a cracker box sat Phil. His head was thrust forward almost aggressively over his instrument, and his eyes glared at the dancing men with the old wolflike gleam. As he played he drew the bow across with a swift jerk, thrust it back with another, threw his shoulders from one side to the other in abrupt time to the music. And the music! Thorpe unconsciously shuddered, then sighed in pity. It was atrocious! It was not even in tune. The performer seemed to grind it out with a fierce delight, in which appeared little of the aesthetic pleasure of the artist. Thorpe was at a loss to define it.

"Poor Phil!" he said to himself. "He has the musical soul without even the musical ear."

Next day, while passing out of the cook camp, he addressed one of the men.

"Well, Billy," he inquired, "how do you like your fiddler?"

"All right," replied Billy, with emphasis. "She's got some go to her."

The word proceeded finely, and yet the young lumberman had sense enough to know that while a crew such as this is supremely effective it requires careful handling to keep it good humored and willing. He knew every man by his first name and each day made it a point to talk with him for a moment or so. The subject was invariably some phase of the work. Thorpe never permitted himself the familiarity of introducing any other topic.

He never replied directly to an objection or a request, but listened to it non-committally and later, without explanation or reasoning, acted as his judgment dictated. Even Shearer, with whom he was in most intimate contact, respected this trait in him. Gradually he came to feel that he was making a way with his men. It was a status not assured as yet nor ever very firm, but a status for all that.

Then one day one of the best men, a teamster, came in to make some objection to the cooking. As a matter of fact, the cooking was perfectly good, but the lumberjack is a great hand to growl, and he usually begins with his food.

Thorpe listened to his vague objections in silence.

"All right," he remarked simply.

Next day he touched the man on the shoulder just as he was starting to work.

"Step into the office and get your time," said he.

"What's the matter?" asked the man.

"I don't need you any longer."

The two entered the little office. Thorpe looked through the ledger and van look and finally handed the man his slip.

"I'll have no growlers in this camp," said Thorpe, with decision.

"By thunder," cried the man, "you—"

"You get out of here!" cried Thorpe, with a concentrated blaze of energetic passion that made the fellow step back.

"I ain't goin' to get on the wrong side of the law by foolin' with this office," cried the other at the door, "but if I had you outside for a minute!"

"Leave this office!" shouted Thorpe.

"S'pose you make me!" challenged the man insolently.

In a moment the defiance had come, endangering the careful structure Thorpe had reared with such pains.

The young man was suddenly angry in exactly the same blind, unreasoning manner as when he had leaped single handed to tackle Dyer's crew.

Without a word he sprang across the shack, seized a two bladed ax from the pile behind the door, swung it around his head and cast it full at the now frightened teamster. The latter dodged, and the swirling steel buried itself in the snow bank beyond. Without an instant's hesitation Thorpe reached back for another. The man took to his heels.

"I don't want to see you around here again!" shouted Thorpe after him.

Then in a moment he returned to the office and sat down, overcome with contrition.

"It might have been murder," he told himself, awe stricken.

But, as it happened, nothing could have turned out better.

Thorpe had instinctively seized the only method by which these strong men could be impressed. Now the entire crew looked with vast admiration on their boss as a man who intended to have his own way no matter what difficulties or consequences might tend to deter him. And that is the kind of man they liked.

Injun Charley, silent and enigmatical as ever, had constructed a log shack near a little creek in the hard wood. There he attended diligently to the business of trapping. Thorpe rarely found time to visit him, but he often gilded into the office, smoked a pipeful of the white man's tobacco in friendly fashion by the stove and gilded out again without having spoken a dozen words.

Wallace made one visit before the big snows came, and was charmed. He ate with gusto of the "salt horse," baked beans, stewed prunes, mince pie and cakes. He tramped around garly in his moccasins or on the fancy snowshoes he promptly purchased of Injun Charley. There was nothing new to report in regard to financial matters. The loan had been negotiated easily on the basis of a mortgage guaranteed by Carpenter's personal signature. Nothing had been heard from Morrison & Daly.

By the end of the winter some 4,000,000 feet of logs were piled in the bed or upon the banks of the stream. To understand what that means you must imagine a pile of solid timber a mile in length. This tremendous mass lay directly in the course of the stream.

When the winter broke up it had to be separated and floated piecemeal down the current. The process is an interesting and dangerous one and one of great delicacy. It requires for its successful completion picked men of skill and demands as toll its yearly quota of cripples and dead. While on the driven men work fourteen hours a day up to their waists in water filled with floating ice.

On the Ossawinimakee, as has been stated, three dams had been erected to simplify the process of driving. When the logs were in right distribution the gates were raised, and the proper head of water floated them down.

Now, the river being navigable Thorpe was possessed of certain rights on it. Technically he was entitled to a normal head of water whenever he needed it, or a special head, according to agreement with the parties owning the dam. Early in the drive he found that Morrison & Daly intended to cause him trouble. It began in a narrow of the river between high, rocky banks. Thorpe's drive was floating through close packed. The situation was ticklish. Men with spiked boots ran here and there from one bobbing log to another, pushing with their peaveys, hurrying one log, retarding another, working like beavers to keep the whole mass straight. The entire surface of the water was practically covered with the floating timbers.

In a moment, as though by magic, the loose wooden carpet ground together. A log in advance up-ended, another thrust under it. The whole mass ground together, stopped and began rapidly to pile up. The men escaped to the shore in a marvelous manner of their own.

Tim Shearer found that the gate at the dam above had been closed. The man in charge had simply obeyed orders. He supposed M. & D. wished to back up the water for their own logs.

Tim indulged in some picturesque language.

"You ain't got no right to close off more'n enough to leave us th' nat'ral flow unless by agreement," he concluded, and opened the gates.

Then it was a question of breaking the jam. This had to be done by pulling out or chopping through certain "key" logs which locked the whole mass. Men stood under the face of imminent ruin—over them a frowning sheer wall of bristling logs, behind which pressed the weight of the rising waters—and hacked and tugged calmly until the mass began to stir. Then they ceased. A moment later, with a roar, the jam rumbled down on the spot where they had stood. It was dangerous work. Just one half day later it had to be done again and for the same reason.

To Study English Literature.

A "Johanna Club" has been formed in Vienna, Austria, for the purpose of studying English literature.

In a moment the defiance had come, endangering the careful structure Thorpe had reared with such pains.

The young man was suddenly angry in exactly the same blind, unreasoning manner as when he had leaped single handed to tackle Dyer's crew.

Without a word he sprang across the shack, seized a two bladed ax from the pile behind the door, swung it around his head and cast it full at the now frightened teamster. The latter dodged, and the swirling steel buried itself in the snow bank beyond. Without an instant's hesitation Thorpe reached back for another. The man took to his heels.

Tommy Visualizes His Idea of an Old Favorite.

IN a certain school out west means and methods of education are used which to the unenlightened mind appear little less than startling. For instance, the children sing a song. Then each of them makes a drawing which is supposed to illustrate the song which has just been sung. In this way the power of the pupils to "visualize their conceptions" is fostered.

The other day the music of "The Old Oaken Bucket" was started, and everybody joined in the singing. Then they all sat down to make a picture of what the song meant to them.

Tommy, one of the youngest of the class, turned in a truly original sketch. He had drawn what might have been meant for a circle and within it had outlined what appeared to be three wastebaskets all in a row. Underneath this diagram was a sprinkling of fly specks, or was it a representation of microbes as they appear under a magnifying glass?

The teacher looked at the drawing for a moment and then admitted that she was puzzled.

She put her forefinger on the left hand figure in the row of three inside the circle and said, "Tommy, what is that?"

"Why, teacher, that's the old oaken bucket."

The teacher pointed out the right hand figure of the three.

"And that one, Tommy?" she asked.

"Pshaw! That's the iron bound bucket."

The teacher pointed to the circle which inclosed the three buckets.

"What's that?"

"That's the well they hung in."

"And what are these?" she asked finally, pointing to the ragged group of exaggerated fly specks below the rest of the picture.

"Those," answered Tommy, with never a ghost of a smile in his big blue eyes—"those are all the loved spots which my infamy knew!"—Chicago Tribune.

A Test.

The telephone bell in an uptown residence rang a few evenings ago, and a young woman who was expecting a call rushed to answer it, being sure that one of her admirers had called her up.

"Is this —?" demanded a voice, repeating the number of the phone in question.

"Yes," replied the girl.

"Well," continued the voice, "we are testing the wire. Will you please draw a long breath and say very plainly, 'I will be good?'"

She obeyed. "I will be good," she said.

"A little slower and a little more distinctly now, please."

"I will be good," said the young woman, trying her best.

"No. That's not right at all," corrected the voice. "We must fix that wire, I guess. Now make one extra effort and say it again."

The girl caught her breath. "I will be good!" she shouted.

"You will, will you?" laughed the voice. "Well, I'm glad to hear you say so. You were decidedly unpleasant the last time I called."

And just then the man at the other end of the wire "rang off."

Now the young woman is trying to discover just which of her admirers played such a detestable joke on her.—Philadelphia Press.

A Ballad of the Pike.

YOU kin have yer marble buildin' and yer station set apart, Yer palaces of industry and galleries of art. Yer kin have yer architecture like a fairy-land in white And yer furrin exhibitions, fer I reckon they're all right, But I'm lookin' for my money's worth, so when I hit the pike I'm a-goin' to St. Louis jest to see that durned old Pike.

I want to see the zoo And the panyrama too, I want to look at everything I like. I've heard o' the Plaisance And the Cairo girls that dance— Say, I wonder if they'll have 'em on the Pike?

I want to see the furrin cities all along the track, I want to go through Paris to Jerusalem and back, I'd like to see the hull of it—I think I'd like to see the submarine to hades and the air-ship to the moon.

I don't care how I git there, friend, but what's the use to cross the ocean an' fer weeks or months to hike When the world in twenty minutes can be saw along the Pike?

It must be kind o' phoney, Like an eddyed Coney, Or a sold mite o' Barnum, if ye like, And I jest tell you, by jingo, I'm a-chopin' that I kin go For a week or so to rubber on the Pike.

I'd like to see the Zunis an' the Kunis an' the Japs, The mujiks an' the Moslems an' the Romans an' Lapps; I don't much care about the names they have, but I must say It'll be right smart instructive jest to see 'em anyway.

What's the use to cross the ocean an' fer weeks or months to hike When the world in twenty minutes can be saw along the Pike?

You kin reach the polar climate Fer a quarter, while a dime Taken you plumb to the equator, if ye like.

You can travel clean to Mars An' a ways beyond the stars Fer a dollar thirty-seven on the Pike.

I want to see the Filipinos livin' on the plain, An' the dawnin' o' creation an' the sinkin' o' the Maine, An' other great inventions, like the Chinese an' the Turks;

An' the men from France an' Borneo a-carryin' their dirks, Then the ciftful o' sideshows—there's the kind o' thing I like!

I reckon I'll go busted when I travel down the Pike.

I spend no golden gravel On yer dinky furrin travel Or bargain sale excursions on a bike, But I'll be jest disappinted— And I reckon you can find me on the Pike. —Wallace Irwin in Collier's Weekly.
